SCHOOL NEWS

Hello Franklin Wildcats. If you have any questions about dress code please come to the career center on Monday, January 14th at 3:15pm to discuss them. Staff will be there to answer any questions, comments, or concerns. Thank you and See You There. (1/14)

Do you enjoy public speaking? Do you like money? The Lions Club is holding their annual speech contest on January 16th. If you are interested in participating, stop by Ms. Limon's room, HK1, Friday after school tomorrow for a quick informational meeting. The winner of the contest will receive a cash prize and be able to compete for a scholarship of $20,000! If this interests you, meet Friday, room HK1 at 3:10. (1/11)

Come audition for our spring musical, The Pajama Game and if you are interested in becoming a part of our advanced program for next year, come show us what you've got! Singers, actors, dancers and technicians are needed for all that we hope to do to end the year and begin a new one next year. If this sounds fun to you, pick up an audition packet in HE-5 or ask Mrs. Sandoval or Mrs. Knapp for more information about what our program is about. A special workshop is happening, next Wednesday, January 16, 2019 so come out and find out more about what FTC has in store for all you creative sorts! We would love to have you! Auditions will take place on Thursday, January 17, 2019. You won't want to miss this fantastic opportunity!

Teens are welcome to spend an hour at Franklin Library with members of Franklin High School's Japanese National Honors Society on Thursday, January 10 at 3:30 pm to learn the basics of the Japanese language, including how to write their names in Japanese, as well as different aspects of Japanese culture. Materials and refreshments will be provided. (1/10)
