

English 11 Honors Suggested Summer Reading, 2017

Welcome to English 11 Honors!

Congratulations for making it to the end of your sophomore year. By virtue of your signing up for this class, we feel confident that you are readers and that you will continue to read a wide variety of material. We suggest you read the two novels listed below over the summer as pre-reading for the fall term of English 11 honors.

The suggested reading will be available from the Franklin High School library check-out window Friday, May 26 – Friday, June 2 – 8 a.m. – 3 p.m. You will need to present your school ID card or driver's license. You must have cleared all textbook and library obligations from this and previous years including those from other sites. These are the only hours the textbook windows will be open for AP summer texts.

1. The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald. Available at the FHS library from the textbook window or any bookseller.

2. Ethan Frome by Edith Wharton. Available at the FHS library from the textbook window or any bookseller.

You may wish to consider purchasing these titles so you can write in your texts as we move through the year, though this is certainly not a requirement.
